NHS

Nine new National Honor Society members were inducted into the Madison Academy Chapter. They are Carter Boskind, Gabriel Brown, William Downs, Haley Fulton, Edison Garcia, Emily Mae Jones, Ireland Kroll, Andrew Murphy, and Sarah Suarez. They join the other five members in the NHS –Ethan Jones, Patrick King, Zach Metzler, Elyse Pearman, and Matthew Taylor in demonstrating academic achievement, leadership, service, and character. At the ceremony chairs were set apart in groups to maintain appropriate social distancing. Current and new members introduced themselves and started conversations with those that attended. At the end of the evening Mr. Hamberger, NHS Sponsor gave a short biography of each new member and then they signed the NHS membership book. The evening concluded with a group picture.

Stomp Rockets for Math

The Pre-calculus class launched stomp rockets in class today as an exercise in understanding projectile motion and quadratic equations. Each team measured the time and distance of their launch then calculated the vertex and axis of symmetry. They created a graph to model each rocket launch, then determined the concavity and found the equation of trajectory. Confused yet? Ask a Pre-Cal student.... they know how!

Still Making a Difference

MA teachers L-O-V-E their jobs... yet, sometimes we wonder if we are “getting through.” Occasionally, our alumni share their experiences and remind us that our work is not in vain. In just the last six weeks we have heard from several grads whose new perspective led them to text or email us.

Two alumni, attending two different universities, texted Coach Ley to thank him for preparing them with both thorough content and solid study habits. Another alumna texted Mrs. Fuentes with college news and this clear message: “I’m the only one in my [college science] class who knows what’s going on. Thank Mr. Harvey for me.”

Another alum took time to send a full page letter to Mr. Ram. The email, which was a class assignment about a person who made a significant impact on the student’s life, provided specific examples of how Ram’s classes and healthy student relationships blessed him.

In a recent conversation with a School Board Member, the proud father of an MA grad stated clearly: “I would pay double for the education my child received at Madison.” He went on to explain that the quality education and spiritual grounding prepared his student for university and for life.

Thank you, MA Educators! You are making a difference... at Madison and beyond. Your investment in our students, their futures, and their journey with Jesus is cannot be measured. Keep it up!
